Re: Commonwealth
Vs: Elbery

Dear Michael:

I am writing to confirm that your most recent criminal matter is presently scheduled for trial on October 1, 1993. As I explained to you during our meeting, Mr. Aloise did in fact order the transcript of the Westborough proceedings and is awaiting delivery. As you will recall from our conversation in the hallway, it would be my strong advice to you to make an appointment to come in and meet with Mr. Aloise to discuss the outstanding issues which you apparently have. As I explained, I do not think it is appropriate for you to be making comments in the Courthouse relative to this firm's billing practices and to your apparent new found mistrust of Mr. Aloise unless and until you speak to Mr. Aloise about those matters. While I understand your concern, I can assure you that you are not the only person to be convicted of this offense and I can further assure you that Mr. Aloise went, as he always does, to the wall in order to defend you. I think an objective read of this case would lead you to the conclusion that Mr. Aloise is not responsible for the predicament that you presently find yourself in.

You should immediately make an appointment to come in to discuss your apparent anger with Mr. Aloise because I know he would like to speak to you to assist you to clarify a number of misunderstandings on your behalf.

your calendar for the October 1, 1993 date.

Very truly yours,

Michael C. Wilcox
