Subject: Re: the Assent allows McLaughlin to run our house sale

Priority: Normal Date: Friday, April 28, 2017 12:27 PM Size: 2 KB

Greetings:

I just received the "Assent Form" that allows for the License to be Issued by the Land Court.

The "Assent Form" indicates that Attorney John A. McLaughlin will be issued the License to sell our house.

McLaughlin was never hired by us and does not represent us. Our house is not part of the Probated Estate which, by law, excludes the Probate Court, the Probate Judge, or McLaughlin from any Authority over our house.

I told Attorney Charles Long, today am., that his name should be on that "Assent Form", but he says he can't. He agreed with me on all legal issues concerning the house sale, but said he can't put his name on that "Assent Form". Long informed me that Attorney James A. McLaughlin would be taking the Buyer's check and be in charge of our money. I am not agreeing to this Assent Form which illegally puts McLaughlin in charge of my money.

Crowe waits for his Petition for Partition, and our house will be sold at Auction and that Petition will cause massive fees to Attorney John A. McLaughlin who will be appointed by the Court to be the Commissioner overseeing the house sale for the Court. Your net proceeds for your share of the house sale will be far less if the House is Auctioned off with all the associated fees and reduced value due to an Auction Price.

I can't sign that Assent Form and I advise all to be the same.
