D. V. CAMPBELL, Vice President and Secretary, Texas School Book Depository, 614 West Houston Street, Dallas, advised his firm acts as a broker for approximately 48 publishers in the United States in connection with obtaining, storing and delivering books to various schools in the State of Texas. In connection with this, he advised there are seven publishers who have offices adjacent to the warehouse. He furnished a list of all employees, clerical and warehousemen, who work at the Texas School Book Depository. Among employees he noted was former employee, LEE HARVEY OSWALD, carried on their warehouse payroll as LEE OSWALD.

Mr. CAMPBELL advised OSWALD started working at the warehouse on October 10, 1962. He advised OSWALD's original application has been previously turned over to FBI Agents. He stated he has not missed a day's work from October 10 through November 22, 1963.

He advised in addition to the main warehouse located on the corner of Houston and Ela Streets, they also have a warehouse located at 1017 North Houston Street, which is located approximately three blocks north of their main warehouse.

He made available to RA EARRACH a Form V-4 Employee's Withholding Certificate, which he stated was filled out and signed by LEE HARVEY OSWALD, reflecting the following information:

Regarding events that occurred on November 22, 1963, Mr. CAMPBELL advised he had viewed the Presidential Motorcade and subsequently heard the shots being fired from a point which he thought was near the railroad tracks located over the viaduct on South Congress Street. He advised he had not observed anyone fire any shots from their building; however, an individual shooting from the window of the Texas School Book Depository building and he notet that a police officer had taken the individual's name.
