Select Committee on Assassinations, Washington, D.C.

Let the record show and be recorded that Mr. Roger Carroll, Chief United States Probation and United States Parole Officer, Dallas, Texas and his former receptionist, Ms. Sands, are withholding information from this House Select Committee and that they have withheld information from law enforcement agencies and authorities in Dallas, Texas and the Federal Bureau of Investigation. The information withheld concerns my exact whereabouts at the time John F.
Kennedy was assassinated in Dallas, Texas. Mr. Roger Carroll and Ms. Sands have not voluntarily come forward with the truth and they refuse now to tell the facts regarding my whereabouts when Kennedy was shot. They are withholding Kennedy assassination information from authorized agencies investigating former president John F.
Kennedy's assassination. Had Mr. Roger Carroll, U.S. Probation Officer, Dallas, Texas and his former receptionist, Ms. Sands, come forward with the truth regarding my whereabouts at the time former president John F. Kennedy was assassinated, I would not be seated before this House Select Committee on Assassinations today. Mr.
Roger Carroll and Ms. Sands are concealing information from this House Select Committee, the FBI, and other law enforcement agencies pertinent to the investigation of John F. Kennedy's assassination.

Mr. James C. Beagles, Staff Director, United States Parole Commissi Washington, D.C. has aided, sanctioned and abetted the wrongdoing of United States Chief Probation Officer, Roger Carroll, in Carroll's cover up and stonewalling of the truth and facts regarding the assassination of John F. Kennedy and my location at the time Kennedy was shot.

Mr. Wayne Jackson, Chief Probation Officer, United States Supreme Court, Washington, D.C. perpetrated and concealed the wrongdoing of Roger Carroll and, Mr. Jackson, in guilty of protecting Carroll's concealment of Carroll's not coming forth with true information to authorities regarding the assassination of John F. Kennedy.
