Dorothy Ann Garner, 84, of Terrell, passed away on December 29, 2012 in Rockwall. She was born on August 30, 1928 to Joseph Porter Davis and Bertha Leona (Dority) Davis. Known to many as "Dot," she loved to shop, travel, spend time with her family and try her luck at the casino. She was the fan "Aunt D" to her nieces, nephews and grandchildren. Dorothy attended college at Cameron College and received her Bachelor in Business Administration Degree from Central State University in Hammond, LA. She married Scott Forrestman, Funeral Director, on June 3, 1949. Dorothy and Scott raised their children and enjoyed spoiling them all. Dorothy attended church at First United Methodist Church and spent time at the School Book Depository the day President John F. Kennedy was assassinated. She was a devoted Christian and was a member of First United Methodist Church in Terrell. She was also a devoted wife, having been married to her beloved husband, Wilke, for over 50 years and his passing in 1999.

Dorothy is preceded in death by her parents, brother Charles William Davis, and nephew James Keith Davis. Those left to celebrate her life are brother Donald R. Davis and wife Wrilla J. Davis of Garland, Texas; sister Juanita Davis of California, several nieces, nephews, great nieces, and great nephews. Dorothy is also survived by her children, Weiss and Norma Davis of Forney, Gene Garner and wife Ann of California, and Greg Garner and wife Heidi of California.

Funeral services will be held on Wednesday, December 31, 2012 at 2 p.m. at First United Methodist Church in Terrell. Burial will be in River Valley Memorial Park, 1601 Reseda Drive, in Forney, TX on Wednesday at 10 a.m. Graveside service will follow at 10 a.m. Family asks that donations be made in Dorothy's honor to the Advanced Sunday School Class, c/o First United Methodist Church, 503 W College St., Terrell, TX 75160.

"I loved Dorothy like my own mother and many times she told me Joseph you had better listen to her. Her life was a blessing to all. Joseph"
