AM: You say Oswald, you heard that Oswald had come down -- through the head of -- ??

JEJ: Well, there was a billy love lady standing out there, he was on the steps, see.

AM: Oh.

JEJ: And, Oswald was coming out the door and he said the police had stopped Oswald and sent him back in the building, billy love lady said that Mr. Trudy told the policeman that Oswald was alright, that he worked there, so Oswald walked down on the stairs.

AM: Was he carrying ?? You did see any?

JEJ: I didn't see any but that's what they said happened.

AM: Right. Now, going back, you said you all went upstairs to the fifth floor.

JEJ: Correct.

AM: Alright. And, you were kneeling down?

JEJ: Yeah, see the windows was low -- it was low windows in the back so --

AM: Indicating about -- ? Three or four feet above the floor?

JEJ: Three or four feet above the floor, right.

AM: So, everybody was kneeling down as opposed to standing, was the window open?

JEJ: Yes, we had the window opened.

AM: You opened it or was it already opened?

JEJ: No, we opened it.

AM: You opened this window, ok. And, you were kneeling down and then you ran over to -- the west side of the building was it?

JEJ: No, this was after this --

AM: After?

JEJ: After this had happened, then we went into the west side of the building.

AM: And, you saw the President, you thought he was brushing
