

he ran out the door, as you were chasing him?

A. I told him, I said, "You're not going anywhere until the police come."

Q. When you caught up with him on Shrewsbury Street, what did you do?

A. I held my hands out like this, and I said, "Listen, you're not going anywhere until the police come."

(Witness indicating with body.)

Q. Now, you indicated you had your two hands out?

A. I had my two hands out like this.

Q. Open palms?

A. Open palms, yeah.

Q. And your two arms were extended out?

A. I had my arms extended out, yes.

Q. And as you stood there with your arms outstretched, did you again speak to Mr. Elbery?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. What did you tell him?

A. I told him he's not going anywhere until the Worcester police come. Then he started swinging at me.

Q. What does that mean?
