

the flying glass?

A. That is fair to say. It was a random breaking of a bottle.

Q. And at that point you had no further, if I'm understanding your prior testimony, you had no further conversation with Mr. Elbery, because he got up from his seat here and went right out the door?

A. Well, looked at everybody like this, with the bottle and (Witness indicating with body.)

Q. Right, right, you told us. And then he went out the door, right?

A. Right.

Q. And when he went out the door, you didn't tell King to go chase him, right?

A. No, I didn't.

Q. You didn't tell King to go grab him?

A. No. But the reaction was when the girl got the glass in her eye --everybody thought it was in her eye, I think that was --

Q. Do you recall Dr. Sawyer leaving his position and going over to --

A. To help the girl, right.
