

one other person in the bar, whose identity you really don't know. Am I accurate so far?

A. Right.

Q. Okay. So now after the and during that two-minute period of time, you didn't at that point call the police, that's

A. Right.

Q. Okay. So now at some point after that short period of time goes by, you and I think you said Sawyer, went out onto outside the entrance onto Shrewsbury Street, to look to see what was what if anything was going on? I

A. Right.

Q. Because is it fair to say that at that point, whether or not Thomas King and the others had caught up with Mr. Elbery or didn't catch up with him, you really wouldn't have known that unless you at least went

A. I had to be outside of the building, right.

Q. out of the door? Right? So when you went outside the door, you said you looked and you looked both ways, maybe you didn't, but in any event, at one point you looked left and saw what
