

A. Right, he did, because I thought that maybe we might come up with another victim someplace, either that night or the next day and say: I was injured that night and saying I got injured or whatever. So I put in what I had so I could go back to it another time, you know.

Q. And as a matter of fact, nobody has ever come forward from that particular night, right?

MR. MATHIESON: Objection.

A. No, not that I know of.

THE COURT: Well, there's no other cases pending so

A. No, I left information at the bar to give to a person and give them my name to contact me on such a such a shift and what days but

Q. And apparently, you made some effort to check with the area hospitals, I think you mentioned in here --

A. Right.

Q. --to see whether or not anybody had gone for any other treatment?

A. Right.

Q. And the answer you got was no?

MR. MATHIESON: Objection.
