

1           A.       Right.

2           THE COURT:     It may stand.

3           Q.       Now, at some point you decided, after
4 placing Mr. Elbery under arrest for disorderly
5 person, you left and went first to UMass and then
6 ultimately got yourself to Memorial Hospital and
7 finally caught up with King?

8           A.       Yeah.

9           Q.       And somebody obviously at the scene had
10 told you the name of the person who was injured,
11 Thomas King, right?

12          A.       Right.

13          Q.       Right. Did you know Thomas King as a
14 police officer, independent of this matter?

15          A.       Never heard of him before.

16          Q.       So when you went to Memorial Hospital,
17 you had an opportunity to meet him in effect for
18 the first time, right?

19          A.       Yeah.

20          Q.       And do you have a recollection of taking
21 a statement from him, from King?

22          A.       I talked to him in the emergency room.
23 I asked him what happened, and he told me there was
24 an altercation or something going on in the bar, a
