

Q. But you were out there before you observed any --you had not observed any injury on Thomas King until after Mr. Elbery and Mr. King locked physically and went to the ground?

A. Correct, I was too far away.

Q. And how long were they on the ground before Mr. King got up and moved away?

A. It seemed to me it seemed to me seconds. That's what it seemed like, seconds.

Q. And at that point, after Mr. King said he appeared to be hurt and you looked at him and he appeared in fact to be hurt, what next happened? You stayed on Mr. Elbery?

A. Yes. I started screaming for someone to help Tommy, and I was yelling to and there was a bunch of people, and I started saying: "Someone get him to a hospital," because his eye looked awful.

Q. And then what happened?

A. At that point a car stopped, and two men identified themselves as I believe from the House of Corrections, and I don't know who they were, and they said: "Is there anything t h a t we can do?" They thought there was an accident, is what they
