

A. Three minutes.

Q. And before you left the site of Mr. Elbery, was he still lying in the street or was he --

A. The police had stood him up, and he was in handcuffs, and he was in the cruiser.

Q. And so you stayed another few minutes inside the bar, and then you went home?

A. Yes. I went back in to pay my bill, and then I left.

Q. And did you have any further contact with the police or Thomas King regarding this matter, other than coming in to court here today?

A. No, I didn't.

Q. When you and Mr. Taraskiewicz and Mr. O'Connor were on top of Mr. Elbery, was Mr. Elbery struggling with you three?

A. Very briefly. He didn't struggle, no.

Q. So when the police arrived, was he struggling then?

A. Not at that point, no.

Q. Okay. Was he saying anything?

A. He was he was talking about -- I don't really recall. I wasn't listening to him at
