

that.

Q. Okay. Then what happened?

A. I went over to the girl in the corner of the bar and checked out her face. She had a cut below her eye. It was not a deep cut, very superficial, but she thought it was deep because of the blood, and I had Jeff get me a towel from behind the bar and --

Q. And did you observe the activities of Mr. Elbery after the glass went flying?

A. The glass went flying, and all hell kind of broke loose, I guess. People were flying up from chairs, and I know that he backed out or went out through the door.

Q. Okay. Did you see anybody chase him out the door or follow him out the door?

A. I could not tell you who followed him out the door, because I was heading towards the girl.

Q. Do you have a recollection of someone or some people following him out, although you don't know who?

A. I'm sure some people followed him out.

Q. Okay. You went over to the girl, you
