

standing on top of him, holding him down, and one or two people standing up next to him?

A. Yeah, I would say. I can't tell you exactly how many.

Q. Did you see Mr. King?

A. When I brought those two girls out to the car, this fellow came -- Thomas King?

Q. Yes.

A. was walking up the sidewalk and was holding his holding his eye and had blood on his hand and face, and somebody had pulled over, driving by. I don't know if they knew him or -- I don't know why they stopped.

Somebody coming by either saw the commotion and pulled over, and he got in this these two guys, I don't know who they were, he got in the car and they took him off to one of the hospitals to get his eye checked.

Q. Okay. Did you stay outside at that point or go back inside?

A. At that point, I was outside.

Q. Okay.

A. I remember walking towards where all these people were, and I pretty much was probably
