

Q. Well, did you obviously didn't arrest him?

A. No, I didn't arrest him.

Q. And you obviously couldn't arrest him

A. That's right.

Q. in your capacity as a police officer, right?

A. That's right.

Q. But nevertheless, you were going to or, attempt to prevent him from exercising his liberty to leave?

A. That's correct.

Q. Right? You knew that the Worcester police had been called?

A. I had I had an idea that the Worcester police were on the way.

Q. All right. And you had reason to believe that one call, to what would be reported as a disturbance with an injury, right, that they would in fact respond?

A. Yes.

Q. Right?

A. Uh-hum.

Q. All right. So you went up and
