

I don't know exactly what I did, because I was, you know, very upset. I stayed behind the bar for a minute, then he ran. He ran out the door and Tom led --Tom went out after him. He went out the door and went something like this.

(Witness indicating with hands. )

Q. Now, when you say "something like this, " you're curling your two hands with your fingers?

A. Right, some kind of movement like: Come on after me - or whatever. At one time earlier when Tom and Mike were arguing, Mike had challenged Tom to go outside with him.

Q. And did you hear that?

A. Yes, I did.

Q. And so they - they didn't go outside at that time?

A. No, they did not, Tom sat down.

Q. Now, when Mr. Elbery ran out of the bar and Mr. King gave chase, did you phone the police?

A. I waited for a couple of seconds, and as Jerry - he's as the police officer here --knows, we had had a previous incident several years ago that was still in the back of my mind, and I just -- you know, in the bar business,
